Results Summary: GCSE leavers 2022/2023

Risedale School has a good reputation within the local community, and continues to see sustained pupil growth. It continues to offer a broad Risedale also invests heavily in pupil well-being, with a full-time counsellor, SEND/SEMH support HUB and a dedicated well-being team.

Continued investment in facilities, such as the outstanding new Food Technology and brand-new Science labs, combined with the Chromebooks all pupils in the school are given, help ensure all pupils are receiving a broad, rich, and balanced curriculum in well-equipped facilities.

The 2023 GCSE cohort was still a relatively small cohort with a disproportionate amount of mobility compared to the national average, including several very late arrivals in Year 10 and Year 11 mainly due to the significant proportion of pupils who come from a service background. Pupils from a service background also outperformed those from a non-service background, which indicates the support mechanisms in place are effective.

As a school with an inclusive ethos, there were also a significant number of exceptional cases, which we were pleased to support, with pupils receiving an appropriate curriculum in our bespoke pupil support areas plus alternative curriculum venues. These pupils therefore left with relevant qualifications, even though this has a disproportionate effect on the overall progress values and attainment. Risedale always put the needs of the pupils first.
